

'KARMA' STRIKES THE WEB:

Psychic Series Reveals MAN'S Desire for MONEY, SEX & POWER

NEW YORK - October 23, 2006 - Astrobabble® Productions LLC, producers of the new face of spiritual entertainment, launches WhatsYourKarma.TV, the first-ever Psychic series of its kind.

"Money, Sex, Power: WHAT'S YOUR KARMA?"SM hosted by clairvoyant, Lilith Dove is original and unscripted with audience participation that will be based on everyday people with everyday problems - why do they do the things they do and how can they fix it. The show is based on the belief that a person's past actions directly affects the nature of their existence in the present day and suggests that life is truly a never-ending adventure. Lilith delivers her readings in a rapid-fire style, and unlike her counterparts, does not ask the participants a single question.

"The public is already enamored with life after death and talking to the 'dead,' said Executive Producer, Michael Johnson. "This is the next step in the paranormal trend."

Scheduled to begin airing online at the end of October, viewers will be able to watch one full webisode by clicking on <http://www.whatsyourkarma.tv>, with future broadcasts expected shortly thereafter. Episodes slated for the season will include the colorful accounts of "The Gluttonous Flirt," "The Narcissistic Chanteuse" and "The Tortured Libertine."

"Using several key viral initiatives through portals such as YouTube, GoogleVideo, Digg and BoingBoing, we have created a broad range of promotions to increase the visibility of 'Money, Sex, Power: WHAT'S YOUR KARMA?'SM to audiences throughout the world," said Marigrace Hobbs, Creative Producer/ Director for the series. "Our consumer campaign consists of guerilla marketing, cinema, and multimedia platforms which includes mobile connectivity integrating personal daily Karma Clues ©."

Astrobabble® Productions, LLC develops and produces a variety of spiritual lifestyle content for exclusive broadcast on the Internet. Its unique approach to the packaging and distribution of its products and services is a vital component to furthering its mark in the industry. The company is based in New York City.
